

Sycamore

We have a couple of beautiful Sycamore trees in our school.

We know they are Sycamore trees because their leaves have 5 fingers, like our hands, and their seeds look like little helicopters.

Its branches spread out to make a large, rounded tree.

The wood from the Sycamore tree is often used to make furniture.

